

Goss Croft Community Hall

Terms & conditions for use of Hall as an Art Gallery

The hirer is to arrange insurance, should it be so wished - all items displayed at hirer's risk and no claim for damaged or missing items can be entertained

Exhibitions / displays should be for no longer than 3 weeks without prior agreement

The hire of the gallery is free of charge to suitable applicants, but the exhibitor agrees to pay the hall a 10% fee on all items sold.

Hirers' contact details for sale purposes to be displayed in a frame hung within the 'exhibition'. All items for sale to be clearly marked with price or shown as 'not for sale'

Only the wire hanging system provided is to be used - no tacks, nails, sticky pads, blue tack or suchlike

If the wall decoration is damaged through the display - then the hirer will be liable for reinstatement

The setting up and removal times are to be agreed and arranged through our booking Secretary

Booking form obtainable at: www.gosscrofthall.co.uk

If you wish to hold a pre-view - this will be subject to normal Hall hire fees and all relevant GCH Terms and conditions

The hirer is responsible for the sale transactions of all items – no monies will be taken by the hall management for those items sold

Should the items be for display only i.e. not for sale then a separate hire fee will need to be applied as agreed with the trustees.
